

The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC 2015-16

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

Weakness:

1. Premier institutions attract meritorious students
2. Paucity of boarding facilities hinders students residing in far away locales to seek admission in the college.
3. Low economic profile is an obstacle to competency enhancement viz. study tours, Industrial visits, field surveys.
4. Lack of common rooms, rest rooms, and technology based classrooms
5. Time constraints of the teaching faculty due to the curriculum pressure which prevents the faculty from attending training programmes.
6. Lack of English communication skill among the students, who hail from rural background

Opportunities:

1. Upward mobility and vertical mobility is possible in terms of economic and social empowerment.
2. Accessibility to training programmes enables the qualitative improvement of the teaching faculty.
3. Conducive for research environment

Threats:

1. Semester scheme hinders the introduction of certificate courses.
2. Increased number of colleges in the vicinity of the institution.
3. Liberal policy in admission prevents meritorious and socially forward aspirants to seek admission the college.
4. Inadequacy of land prevents further expansion of the college
5. Lack of urge among students to develop English language skills
6. Increased number of migrant labourer's children who often dropout in the middle of the course.
7. Irregularity in attendance due to home sickness
